

JamPlay Songwriting STORY SONGS
1.17.03 Steve Eulberg

BALLAD OF LANCE ARMSTRONG

G C G
SBE: Lance Armstrong, Lance Armstrong
D G
You stayed on the cycle, but fell from grace.

katsis: only told the lies too save your face.
the pride of the country turned to disgrace

SBE: Cancer went to your brain

SBE: A lot of people were sworn to silence had to keep quiet
but somehow we all know it.

Katsis: Wearing the yellow shirt, reaching for gold
All the lies that are told in your search for gold.

SBE: (What would I say to him, if I was his brother, father, sister, mother, wife, child?)

Confessional

Katsis: You carried our pride all through France, we had cause for cheer and dance....Like the waves hitting the rocks, all our hopes in lies were lost

BDCGULL: Or wanting something so bad you become something else

SBE: Didn't you use to be Lance Armstrong, daddy?

susieq: Oh Lance! Oh Lance! What did you do? We always wanted to believe in you. But you went down the wrong road, so you could get the gold.